YOUR PRAYERS WERE ANSWERED Teresa was set free!

Dear Prayer Partner,

Last week I sent an urgent prayer request for a young woman named "Teresa." During her teenage years she became involved with a satanic cult. For several years she participated in their ceremonies and at one point dedicated her body, soul, and spirit to Lucifer. After reading one of my books, she gave her heart to the Lord and completely turned her life around. She sought my help some weeks ago, and I attempted an exorcism. Unfortunately, things got so violent that I had to stop. I told Teresa that we would fly her to Phoenix, at our expense, where I could be certain that no one would be in danger.

We arranged for the exorcism at our Center for Spiritual Freedom. The cameras of HBO and a reporter from one of the largest women's magazines were present. A victorious outcome would have a huge spiritual impact on millions of people around the world. Five strong men (we affectionately call them our "men-in-black" because they typically wear black T-shirts) were scheduled to hold on to Teresa so that the demons wouldn't hurt her or one of us. I asked you, as part of the largest deliverance prayer family in the world, to pray fervently for us. YOUR PRAYERS WERE ANSWERED!

We spent thousands of dollars making all the preparations, at a time when our ministry is deep in debt and struggling to meet our normal obligations. But I could not walk away from this battle. We first met with Teresa in a small conference area. I was there with our team and the three teenage exorcists. We quietly talked about what might happen. Suddenly, Teresa's demons exploded. In a microsecond, she attacked me and violently kicked me in the stomach, flinging me backwards. I grabbed myself in pain and everyone was worried that I might be seriously injured. The team instantly restrained Teresa before her demons could assault me further. We never made it to the exorcism room. Imagine a woman, five-foot, one-inch tall and barely weighing about 100 pounds, fighting off five big men for four straight hours. Once, we let her go briefly to pray. Instantly, the demons bolted for the front door and sent Teresa running down the street. It was slightly comical to watch five grown men running as fast as they could to catch this small woman. When they finally caught her, they picked her up screaming and kicking and carried her back to the building. Thank the Lord it was night and no one was around or someone would have certainly called the police. For the next four hours we held on to Teresa, keeping her in a conference chair, while fighting some of the most powerful demons I've ever encountered.

After four hours of nonstop prayer, we were able to cancel the contract she made with Satan. Lilith, Damien, and Lucifer (the main demons) were cast out in one final, furious battle. Teresa returned to herself, a sweet young lady with a deep love for the Lord. The men-in-black were sweating profusely. The teenage exorcists and I were exhausted. The journalist and TV people were astounded. After all this, Teresa sat down in front of the cameras. For another hour she calmly shared her testimony of deliverance from Satan.

After Teresa returned home she sent us a touching email of appreciation. All of us who ministered to her wept as we read it. Tears were running down my cheeks by the time I got through the first paragraph. Teresa wrote:

I want to thank you for all of your help. The kindness you showed me was above and beyond what I expected. There are no words to express how much I appreciate what you did. You flew me out on your own expense and then took great risk to bodily injury so that I could finally be completely set free.

For years I have struggled in my walk with Jesus. Many Christians did not understand why I could not live victorious and typically questioned my salvation. Few Christians believed that demons could be shackling me spiritually. There were years when I felt that I could not go on. Bob you were my very last hope. I had come to the point of giving up. Many times I felt strongly urged to curse God and go back to the devil. I cried many times at night pleading with God to help me. What I did not realize is that He heard me and would take me full circle with your ministry. Your ministry led me to Christ through your book. Now it has set me free!

Just a few days after the exorcism I have already noticed a difference. The temptations and urges I struggled with for years have gone. I feel a great heaviness lifted from my spirit and it is as if I am walking on air. Greater yet, I feel as if a wall that kept me from sensing Christ's love for me has been broken! I have had tears of joy these past few days just being able to feel His overwhelming love for me. Now I desperately want to find my place in the Church and help other hurting people, especially those who have come out of Satanism and feel they cannot speak out. I want to boldly tell the world the reality of Satan and the love of Christ! If it was not for your ministry none of this would have been possible. You have been instrumental in helping the hurting be set free! This is why people need to support your ministry because you are the last hope for many. You will always have my support!

Your sister in Christ,

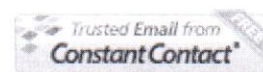

A FINAL NOTE: This praise report has one disappointing part. I had asked our friends and partners to help by sharing a gift of $1,000 or $500 or $100 or whatever they could. Only a handful responded and the entire need was not met. In Teresa's words, "People need to support your ministry because you are the last hope for many." If you didn't help last week, please help now. In appreciation of your gift of $50 or more I'll send one of my books that touched Teresa's heart, DEMON PROOFING
