Note: Break up into groups of 2 or 3 people maximum per group, we will all read and say the following out loud together (Matt 18:20)

The Bible makes it clear that satan assigns an evil spirit or demon to every human:

1. In the old testament, these evil spirits show up in the form of generational curses (Ex 20:5, Num 14:18, Deut 5:9, Deut 28:15) and they flow down the blood line to your descendants (Deut 28:46, Deut 28:59)
2. In the new testament, a messenger [evil spirit] of satan was assigned by satan to Apostle Paul (2 Cor 12:7)

As Christians, our job is to cancel the assignment, then lift and break the curse:

1. Cancel the assignment of that evil spirit off of ourselves and others. James 4:7 tells us to “Resist the devil [stand firm against him], and he will flee from you.”
2. Reverse the curse. Jesus said in 1 John 3:8 that He came “to undo (destroy, loosen, and dissolve) the works the devil [has done].”

Confess Jesus publicly as Lord:

According to 1 John 4:2, I hereby confess that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh and is God Almighty. And according to Rom 10:9-10 and Matt 10:32 I believe that Jesus Christ died on the cross and rose again from the dead that I might have eternal life. Therefore, I choose to repent of all my sins. Lord Jesus, come into my heart. I receive you now as my Lord and Savior. According to 1 John 1:7-9 I ask you Lord Jesus to forgive any sins that I have committed today or previously and wash me afresh in your shed blood on the cross. Lord Jesus I thank you and worship you for who you are as my Lord and Savior.

Cancel the assignment of the evil spirit (put actions with your words James 2:17)

 - i. It is written in Jer 23:29 Is not my word like as a fire? Saith the Lord; and like a hammer that breaketh the rock in pieces?
